Unbound - Colours Of Love (Colours Of Love Series Book 1)

Synopsis

Grace is young and has led a sheltered life. She hasn't yet taken much of an interest in men. It's only while doing an internship in London, where she meets the alluring Jonathan Huntington, that our sleeping beauty is awoken from her slumber. Jonathan is rich, incredibly attractive, and stems from British royalty - but he is a far cry from Prince Charming. He lures Grace ever deeper into his world of sinister passion, and she is sucked further and further into the maelstrom of her own growing desires. But when Jonathan demands she do the unthinkable to prove her love for him, she realizes just how dangerous her feelings for him are. Kathryn Taylor has been a writer since childhood - publishing her first story when she was eleven years old. From then on, she knew that she wanted to be a professional author one day. After a few career detours and a happy ending in her personal life, her dream has finally come true: UNBOUND - COLOURS OF LOVE is her first novel.

Customer Reviews

It's hard to describe what I feel about this book. I definitely not like or dislike, but just a "meh." Many spoilers ahead, so stop reading now if you don't want to know any. This book is about college student Grace from the U.S. She lands a prestigious internship in London at Huntington Ventures, where it just so happens that the founder/CEO is a superhot Brit and member of the aristocracy, Jonathan Huntington. As fate would have it, she crosses his path upon arriving in London and immediately catches his attention. But unbeknownst to her, she also catches the attention of Jonathan's creepy Japanese associate Yuuto Nagako. Grace's coworker, Annie, tries to warn her away from a guy like Jonathan | but you know she doesn't listen. As they engage in an "only sex, nothing more" affair, Grace (stereotypically) finds herself falling for Jonathan. But is she willing to accept what little Jonathan can offer in terms of a "relationship"? And the answer to this question at the end of the story is "No. But of course, Grace doesn't come to that healthy conclusion until she engages in said affair, meets his family and closest friend (who both seem to like her a lot), and agrees to go with Jonathan to an exclusive (sex) club. It is while at the club does Grace realize she wants to be exclusive (because she loves him), whereas Jonathan likes to get his kicks with a lot of random strangers. Not to mention Yuuto wanted her to come to the club from the jump, and that still didn't send up enough flags for Grace to pass on the whole situation. So, of course this story ends on a cliffhanger "Jonathan runs after Grace in the rain as she's fleeing from (high-class) Swingersville. But what does he have to offer to make her stay now that she realizes she can't go through with a one-sided relationship?

This is book one in the "Colours of Love" Series. This is my first book by this author too...but once I read this book I had to go and find book two 'Uncovered' because I had to know how things ended. Yes, book one does have a cliffhanger similar to 50 Shades of Grey where you need to the next book to pick up their story. Also it touched lightly on 50 Shades of Grey in their love scene but did not go as far. I truly liked this story and really go into the characters and even the secondary characters were really good! Grace our heroine, is a young 22 year old lady who has never really left home and has only been going to college but she get a internship at a London Office for three months and decides that she really wants to go. Grace has been following the company history and the owner. On her first day in London at the airport she see Jonathan Huntington who is the owner of the company. She thinks at first he is there to pick her up and she goes to him only to find out he doesn't even know her but is there to pick up some Japanese colleges. So embarrassed she starts to walk away trying to find other transportation when he comes up to her and tells her they will take her to his office. When he drops her off at the office everyone is shocked that she had caught his attention and that he even gave her the time of day. The next day she is called into his office and he offers her to intern as his assistant and her original interning job. She quickly agrees knowing this is a good opportunity for her and her future career. Grace does wonder if she can handle the attraction she feels for him and do this job at the same time but decides to go forward with the offer. Grace starts to find that Jonathan is not so immune to her either..
