Customer Reviews

I have been waiting for this book to come out for quite some now and I must say I was very disappointed. It dragged out n lefted some unanswered questions. Books 1-4 I would recommend but this one not so much. Sorry ms.west

I tried to give this author another chance, silly me. This so called last book in the SC series made no sense. It read as if the author ran out of things to say so it was much blah blah blah....

Seriously this is how it ends... I am so so so disappointed. It ended to shortly all of this wait for nothing.

Honestly I was expecting more since this was going to be the last of the side chic series. I mean really? The ending was definitely rushed. I did however feel bad about Lala but more for Kisha. Kisha been with Tre all those years and I understand how Kisha felt when he made everything about Lala in this read. But over all I was very disappointed in this read.

This was a great read although the events had me unhappy from the beginning. I am glad that Tre decided to move, he made the best choice for him and the girls. I am also glad and impressed that he stepped up for those babies. Kisha is another story, sorry but she should of been the one instead of my Lala. I have always been team Lala, so yes I was a little disappointed. All in all, great book La'Tonya West!!!!

This book had me in my feelings. I hate that Lala died because it broke my heart to think about her girls growing up without her. Although they have Tre there is nothing like the love from your mother. This book was good from beginning to end. I wish that it was going to be a part 6!!! Mrs.West did her thing once again!!!

I wish there was a way to give zero stars.....I bought it despite the reviews and despite her iffy writing style...I read this entire book in a hour which is sad...it was not long at all...it left so many unanswered questions ....where are all the other characters? I'm so lostn.number do frustrated..she still has not hired an editor , and she still leaves horrible cliff hangers..

I wasn't too happy with the ending of part four of the Side Chic series. Nonetheless, I still wanted to see what happened in the Boykins following the death of Lala. Part Five picks up with Tre grieving over the loss of Lala and Tyson. It is now that Tre realizes how much he truly loved Lala and how badly he treated her. All these emotions really puts Tre in a dark place . As Tre struggles to do right by family , he realizes he wants a fresh start and wants to leave Boykins. But his past won't let him go especially Kisha. Even though Kisha has moved on , her feelings for Tre will always make her feel stuck. Moving on is never easy as rest of other Boykin's characters soon realize. Mina near death experience will leave some deep rooted scars. Nelle struggles to live without Corey and others find themselves miserable and alone. Overall, the book was ok and please work on the editing.
