Promises & Pina Coladas: A Sudden Falls Romance

Synopsis

It was a promise made for pina coladas. Back in college, Annie never wanted to settle down, while Ben dreamed of making it big. But one celebratory night, a pact made over a particularly wicked pitcher of pina coladas caught them both by surprise: if either of them needed anything, (anytime, anywhere) the other would be there. It was the kind of thing best friends say, never expecting the words to matter. Only now, a decade later, that promise is coming due. And now it's the perfect plan. Ben has everything he wants: he's a top exec with a New York financial firm, he just received a promotion that will take him halfway around the world, and he has all of the money and security a guy would ever need. Only he's never met the girl of his dreams. And Annie, a free spirit following her dreams as a radio deejay and social activist, is still missing one critical piece in the puzzle of her life—her heart. Then Ben is assigned to Annie's hometown for a brief stint before his newest career move. Will love finally get a second chance to make the perfect match?

Customer Reviews

As much as I love the Mendoza sisters, I was getting nervous - there are only three of them, and I've already read about the first two! So I was thrilled to see Elizabeth Bemis had launched a new series in the same wonderful small town. Annie Tremont is a heroine you simply can't help rooting for - flawed and insecure but with an authentic compassion and generosity that radiates from the first page. Her hero is college best friend Ben, now an all-business-all-the-time go-getter who has some insecurities of his own. When these one-time friends make good on a long ago promise, they get a second chance at love. Funny, heartwarming, and emotional, Promises & Pina Coladas is the perfect summer read. Hooray for a new set of sisters in Sudden Falls!

The Pan Man was just a delight to read. The paranormal element was a surprise and so steeped in Louisiana (Creole) tradition, it read like a secret. A dark, wonderful, awe-inspiring secret. I can't wait to read Ms. Wheeler's next story.

Elizabeth Bemis is one of the freshest, most interesting new writers to come along in a long while. She writes about characters who all have their flaws but go on to escape the trap of their flaws and rise above them.

I've found a new author to love and read way past my bed time! This is my second book in this series and I'm headed back for more! Thanks so much for being a Kindle Unlimited author!

Another WONDERFUL read from a WONDERFUL author. Elizabeth Bemis had me hooked from page one! Great characters with an even better story line. I cannot wait until the next book :)
