So many children's book read like translations, but here is one that is fun, creative, and reads like someone wrote it in Spanish. Even in Spanish speaking countries it is hard to fine books for children, especially children under five, that are not translations from other languages.YO TENIA UN HIPOPOTAMO has my two and a half year old squealing for joy as the boy in the story gives away different animals to family and freinds, and in the process learns some great vocabulary. The illustrations are also fun. This is a book that will hold a childs interest whether they be 1 1/2 or 4.

Nuestro hijo tiene este libro, y es uno de sus preferidos. Puede ser difÃ- cil encontrar un libro de los nià os de la calidad en espaà ol y por un autor de habla hispana cuando usted estÃ_i en un paÃ- s de discurso no-espaà ol, pero usted encontrarÃ_i uno en este tÃ- tulo. AdemÃ_is, las ilustraciones son muy hermosas mirar, y el texto introduce no solamente muchos diversos animales, pero también muchas diversas palabras espaà olas para las relaciones (vecino, abuela, primo, etc).Dos pulgares para arriba (y cinco estrellas)!

I read this book in Spanish to my Kindergarten up to fifth grade students. They love the story! It has a lot of repetition which is great for them to hear. They love the animals and realizing that they are animal crackers.
