Shared By The Warriors: Ravaged And Pillaged Menage (Violation Innocence Historical Mythology)

Synopsis

Everything else rolled into the back of my mind as phantom bliss took its place. I'd never felt the touch of a man before—peasant, royalty, barbarian, warrior, any of the above—because I was far too busy concentrating on my gifts. I was a vessel, something used to communicate from Olympus to everyone else, I couldn't just ignore that to get the physical pleasures that people with less obligations caved into. Sienna is a seer, her entire life revolves around her gifts and she knows nothing else, naive to the outside world. After becoming the personal seer of a king who requires far more attention than others can muster, she finds herself the target of rough men who are desperate to get back at the king, no matter the cost. While she sees an intoxicating vision of herself feeling ultimate pleasure with a group of warriors who share her, warning her of what is to come, she also sees the consequences if she tries to escape, and ultimately surrenders to their rugged wanton needs by allowing them to come. They take her in the dead of night, humiliate her, and return her back to their camp where she realizes it's only the beginning of what they have planned for her. A group of men, including their leader, are ready to pillage and ravage the king's prized seer and defile all the innocence she has. Read this explicit historic mythology erotica to find out more.
