Fired Up For The Sultan (Milked In London Book 13)

Synopsis

• Intelligent women make the best concubines. • When it came, the fall of Western Civilization was accompanied by financial meltdown, disease, and nuclear Armageddon. Happily for Jenny, she is one of the few remaining women able to conceive and deliver healthy children. She is overflowing with desire for her Master who aches to father his descendants upon his submissive concubine. Unfortunately, a month has gone by and Jenny still hasn't conceived. Summoned from the Bedouin tribes of Arabia, a shaman is called upon to awaken her body to its destiny. Sheikh Suleiman will use ancient forbidden practices to help her welcome her master's essence. If he succeeds in his task, the shaman will be awarded anything his heart desires. Anything that is, but the girl herself. Jenny belongs only to the Sultan even if her passions can be called upon on a whim. Woe be to thee who succumbs to the temptations of her beauty. More than 23,000 words. WARNING: This work of fiction includes scenes and motifs that some might find dark and disturbing. If graphic acts and humiliation in fiction are not your thing, please be advised that this book will most probably not appeal to you. This is Volume 13 of the Milked in London series.
