Confidante: The Madame (Confidante Trilogy Book 3)

Synopsis

The Confidante Trilogy book three After leaving the Escort agency, Angeliem kept up with a few regular clients and was often called in to work parties with other girls as a type of freelancer. Then one of her colleagues came to her with a business proposition that she couldn't refuse - they would run their own escort agency and offer only mature women for the more discerning men. Experience equalled money in the sex industry, and Angeliem and her new partner, Elena, built up quite the name for themselves. Follow Angeliem, a now retired Sydney sex worker during her final year in the industry through this story based on real events. This is Confidante: The Madame. Story rated 18+ due to subject matter and sex scenes.

Customer Reviews

This is a really good book, amazing hearing about the stories of all the kinky and strange characters and how well this Madame dealt with them. I liked this whole series! A fun read for sure, to me was a page turner.

Very honest look at the industry from one woman's perspective! I couldn't stop reading, flew through all three books!! Enjoyed every single chapter! Very intriguing, erotic and funny!!

It was very interesting and kept my attention everything about the purchase was positive
