Synopsis

"...death is ever stalking us. It is our bitter food day and night!" What's Going On Downriver? is the gripping, true story of a remote, indigenous people who come face to face with the Truth that transcends all cultures. Chapter builds upon chapter as you experience the dawn of new life for the Bisorio people. "...an exciting narrative that captivates you from page one and keeps you riveted until the end." -Kari Udlock "This little volume will revolutionize your life...Take the trip "downriver" and you will be lifted right into God's presence." -Dr. J. Ronald Blue "This was an 'I can't put it down book' for me!...a riveting, real life account of a lost world turned upside down by the love of God in modern times." -Dr. Bob Smith "This is a book that every missions-minded person will want to complete in one sitting." -D. John Richard "...my eyes welled up with tears of joy. I witnessed the love of God...I sensed light dispelling the darkness...I cheered as the Bisorios began to understand...I was awed at the power of God..." -Paul C. Dye "What's going on Downriver is a quick and enjoyable read for anyone with a love for God's Word and the adventure of tribal missions..." -Dr. John McMath Rob Greenslade is a pastor, writer, potter and pray-er! He lives in the Pacific Northwest with Laurie, the love of his life. Rob and Laurie have been married 32 years and have four amazing adult children and seven delightful grandchildren. The Greenslades hope that this little volume will inspire believers to take "God's Talk" to the ends of the earth.
