Customer Reviews

I love all of these books. I am highly anticipating the 2nd books for Ballers and the Black Brothers. I am about to start Hush 2 and I am currently reading Legally Bound 5.0, Sam's story. I am not finished with the novella but so far, I am loving the book. I like how they all tie together. I hope Olivia from LB 4 gets her happily ever after with a story of her own. I think her the uncle will be an awesome story. She deserves her own story, especially after she unselfishly set aside her own needs to help Marie and Jasper. She needs her own HEA. I also hope Tasha/Monique from LB 5.0 gets her own story as well. There is no way she can have that kind of impact on both, Sam and Ellen and not get her own story. Ms. Blue, if you read these reviews, please give Olivia and Tasha their own stories. Anyway, now that I have said that let me give a review for LB 4. This book was great. I wasn't sure how it would all work out, especially with Marie running from Jasper in the previous books but I like how you used Olivia and time and maturity to bridge the gap and prepare them for one another. I think it worked it perfectly. They weren't ready and weren't what each other needed until they matured and learned how to show and give love. I liked how they evolved. I liked how Marie was able to grow into the woman Jasper needed. The love was always there which was beautiful, they just had to reach a place where they were ready for that type of love. No more hiding. I loved it. This was truly a good book. I would recommend this book and the others in this series as well as in the Black, Ballers, and Hush series to anyone. These books do not disappoint. I'm also intrigued about Camille. What will her story be? I believe she has a lot of secrets and I cannot wait to see what happens with her.
