INFESTATION: A Small Town Nightmare 2 (with Finale Episode 3): Supernatural Suspense (INFESTATION- A Small Town Nightmare)

Synopsis

Evil Lurks in the Most Unlikely Places. Continue on an unforgettable journey with Marie Adams and her family. CAN THIS TOWN BE SAVED OR WILL IT GO STRAIGHT TO HELL? The town of Bringham--once a peaceful, God-fearing community, suddenly finds itself in a major crisis. Strange things are happening which defy logic even in the slightest sense of the word. Yet, one resident has seen the devastation before-hand and knows that if something isn't done quickly to eradicate the evil that is upon them, the town they know and love will be a distant, tragic memory. What no one can possibly fathom is that the seemingly pious and good-natured may be the reason the darkness has found its way to Bringham in the first place. As you pay close attention to this story, each episode will bring you closer and closer to the truth. Strange Things are Happening... A Prophet A Psychic Witchcraft Demon Possession/ Oppression Spiritual Warfare to the highest extreme A frightening increase in suicides and crime. Something horrible has landed amidst the once tight-knit community. Will Marie Adams become a victim herself? Has she slipped too deeply into the bowels of darkness? In this sequel, discover what else has been uncovered in the town of Bringham. "This book will cause you to reflect on one's own life and how demonic forces can sometimes be so powerful that it is hard for one to overcome. It makes one also realize that emotional pain and hurt inflicted by someone else can last a lifetime." - customer.

Customer Reviews

The following is what I included in the review of the previous instalment, episode 1 of Infestation, "I am looking forward to Taylor introducing more of the spiritual side to this story, notably from a biblical worldview. So far, I am pleased with what I have read despite the fact that the only spiritual aspects are that the evil is demonic and a few references to living and treating people according to God's standard as outlined in the Bible. A very easy read with some promising plot lines laid down for further development. I am looking forward to seeing the horror elements developed and the countermeasures to deal with this, hopefully from a biblical worldview and perspective. Bring on the spiritual warfare!" Well, in this episode, the demonic oppression deepens, more murders, seven in one incident, and a new church which seems to be honest on the outside but is not as it seems has Marie suspicious that this could be connected to the source of this 'infestation'. She also finds more clues from interviewing one of the perpetrators of multiple murders from the previous episode. From all these events, she is even more suspicious about what is the real cause of these heinous crimes that are taking over the town but Marie is not forthcoming yet and I can see that this will happen in the final episode. Towards the end of this short, the demonic events escalate with one of Amy's friends having a demonic experience with tangible physical results, and it is this that makes Marie realise what is happening in Bingham is more serious than she thought. Taylor has included more biblical principles of discernment, asking for guidance through prayer, and not speaking out against God's appointed leaders without the leading of the Spirit.
