Now That It's You

Synopsis

Talented chef Meg Delaney hasn't spoken to her cheating ex-fiancé, Matt Midland, for two years. Ditching him at the altar after blurting out "instead of 'do' would sour any relationship. But now, just as Meg is finally ready to bury the hatchet, she learns closure is permanently off the menu. And the kicker? Matt's brother, Kyle, is back in her life, stirring up feelings that are equal parts guilt and lust. Meg was the best thing that never happened to Kyle. He couldn't make a move on his brother's girlfriend "even if Matt didn't value her nearly enough. The situation is even more complicated now that Meg's bestselling aphrodisiac cookbook has spawned a legal battle with the Midlands. Maybe he should stay away. But love, like family, plays by its own rules. And the one woman he shouldn't want might be the only one who's perfect for him.

Customer Reviews

Meg Delaney calls a halt to her wedding to Matt at the altar. Sounds like a terrible thing to do but she found out the night before that her fiancé cheated on her and she just couldn't go through with the wedding. That's reason enough, but we also learn that her father has been cheating on her mother for years. Because of this, cheating is something she knows she could never forgive. Fast forward two years and there has been no communication between them or their families. Meg finds out her ex is having routine surgery and takes this as an opportunity to wish him well and to get closure, only to run into his brother and finds out Matt passed away during the procedure. Now Kyle has always had a thing for Meg, but she has always been off limits. Having Meg back in their lives briefly for the funeral has brought back all of Kyle's feelings. I'm sure you can guess where this is going at this point. I wish I could say that I loved this book but I can't. The writing was very mature and I could even have loved Kyle and Meg if the author took this story in a different direction. But the author had a few things happen in this story that I personally didn't like and couldn't get over. It's really just how you would interpret this story and some people may not have any issues. SPOILER I felt Meg was an injured party here. Her ex-fiancé was horrible to her. We learn this in pieces throughout the book. Then while Meg tries to be there for his family, his mom actually tried to get money from Meg on Matt's behalf to pay for photos he took. Matt was a sports photographer and when they were together he took pictures for Meg's cookbook. He was suppose to do this for free like any fiancé would. In turn she catered his office parties for free.
