Customer Reviews

Looking for books that Honduran parents to could read to my goddaughter, this seemed like a good match. There are so few books beyond preschool and early reader books that are available in Spanish..through any outlets in the US. This was very well received.

I didn't read this before gifting it to my grandson, but of course I have read the story of Charlotte's Web. Both my grands are in dual language at school (first and third grades). It's not as easy as one might think to find really good, entertaining Spanish language books even here in South Texas. has been a great resource for books of this sort. I think it's especially helpful for the kids to be able to read the stories they're familiar with already. Charlotte's Web fits that bill!

Muy interesante; me gusta todos los libros de este seria.
