The Last Miss Macintyre: A Novella

Synopsis

Sara Macintyre has watched every girl in the county court suitors and marry gentlemen, wondering if her own time will ever come. Is she doomed to remain a virgin spinster forever? Will she ever know a man's touch? The last unmarried daughter of Mr. Macintyre discovers there is another sort of woman inside her, begging to come out and taste the joys of life. All she needs is someone to help her explore herself.

Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed this book and read it in one sitting. I like my erotica with well thought out back story and characters, and this story did it for me. Sara starts the story as a virgin and the book takes us through her exploration of sexuality in a Pride and Prejudice-ish setting. The ending made me happy. Waiting for another installment!!

Entertaining short story in the tradition of Jane Austen, but with loads of humping and a clear sense of being written in the 21st century. Well worth a read, if you like some slightly dirty amusement.

Good read. A naughty little biscuit best enjoyed alone and paired with two hours peace and quiet, a marginally acceptable wine, and a comfy spot.

A unique book, very different than all other historical fiction books I've read. Probably more like real life situations. For adults only!

Couldn't get passed the second chapter. The characters were awful. Maybe it got better later? But what a horrible storyline
