Synopsis

In spite of losing her parents at a young age, Nevada had never missed a birthday celebration and her twenty-fifth was going to be life-changing. That is if she can convince her protective older brothers, Dakota and Jericho, to loosen the apron strings and let her claim her granny's land. With it, she just might have a chance at her own life. An ex-con, Tanner Jessup, needed a job. Down to his last tank of gas, he has little option but to accept Nevada Sanders' offer of work. Falsely accused of a crime he hadn't committed once before by the daughter of a wealthy rancher he trusted, he planned to keep his distance from his new boss lady. But as he worked side by side with her through the long summer days, the attraction that sizzled between them was too hot to ignore. With the vast differences between them, was it time to move on? Or could he come to terms with his past and find a future with the woman who had stolen the heart right out of his chest? ## Customer Reviews

Nevada and Tanner | Romantic, sexy, family, end a HEA with a little tease about | No spoilers here. It was a quick read that held your attention easily and it was enjoyable. Will definitely be reading more books by these ladies ! Certainly hope to find more in this series .

This is a traditional romance story that I highly recommend. It has everything in it, family , love , a sweet heroine and let's not forget sexy cowboys !! Joann and Patricia tell wonderful stories and I look forward to new ones all the time.

I absolutely loved the story line. Was rustic ,romantic in the way I like. I loved Tanner. I've already downloaded the next books. Starting the next story as soon as I've finished this. I love reading about cowboys,and military, veterans hero's Great book! The setting is breathtaking, the characters are believable, realistic, and charming. The plot is exceptional. Tanner and Nevada have a rough start and bumps along the way but they do get their HEA. A very good read!

I enjoyed Nevada and Tanner's story. They have survived troubling events from the past on the road to each other. Can an ex-con and a sheltered ranch princess find happiness, well the answer is yes. The book is a little short but, if you are looking for a great way to spend an afternoon this the perfect book.

NEVADA'S PRIDE is the start to another Baker and Mason BBW romance novella series. I was glued to this story because the characters were interesting and the drama kept things flowing well. The resolution to the drama did seem a little fast considering there's an unresolved issue in the community and a lawman who doesn't seem quite right, but I suspect the authors will re-visit those areas in future additions to this series. But, needless to say, the ending was just the type of HEA I've come to expect from this writing duo. Can't wait for the next story!

NEVADA Sanders inherited her grandmother's 500 acres and the house which was in need of repairs since it had been empty for some time. She remembered the cowboy who was looking for work that showed up at her birthday party. She went looking for him and found Tanner Jessup and offered him a job to work for her. He tells her why he served two years if a five year prison term for rape. Her brother s are not happy with her decision to hire Tanner but disbelieve Tanner but she would not admit she had stated to have feelings for him. Sorry to say I have read book number 2 and 3 and up know who the rapist is in Heartbreak Ridge.

It's frustrating to have to read a sentence more than once because it doesn't make sense. It seems that a lot of the books are this way nowadays and it's sad that society doesn't take more pride in their work.
