Customer Reviews

Louis L'Amour is impossible to top when it comes to westerns. I have been to a lot of the locations that he uses and his descriptions of the locale is right on the money. You can almost feel the saddle under you as he describes the rides his characters take!

When I read his books I can hear the leather creak, fill the strong coffee. I can see the trees hear the creek and feel the wind blow. I'm there in the place. I love his stories so much. That I've read many of them several times over.

A good series of western stories very authentic and adventures. A must read for people who like the west.

it as good as all of Louis L'Amour books are and is great reading

Some of his finest.

I like to read short stories. These were just great. Easy to read and they held your interest until the end.
