Customer Reviews

I purchased, read and reviewed these three book separately. This is a fantastic bargain to be able to buy all three books for less than the normal price of books 2 and 3. I will give you my thoughts on each of the books and explain my rating. Book 1. I thoroughly enjoyed the story of witchcraft, murder, cats that can communicate with humans, and more. Against the backdrop of Niagara Falls, two cousins and their aunt/mother run a small cafe. However the cafe is destroyed by fire at the beginning of the book. Much of the story is trying to find out who was responsible not only for the fire, but for the theft of a family magic book that was removed before the fire was set. I was fascinated by the way the cats could communicate with Cath (one of the three main characters who are all witches), but also confused by much of what was said or done. I felt as though the author had too many ideas, too little time, or too little editing with the book. I wanted to love it but was deeply disappointed. I am not sorry I read it-perhaps a second reading would help me sort it all out., I thought the basic characters were likable and well thought out. But perhaps Cath said it best when she said, "I'm trying to make sense of all this, but I don't know where to begin..." (3*) Book 2. This is the second book in the Wonder Cats Mystery series about a family of witches, and one in particular. Her name is Cath Greenstone. While each witch has specific abilities, Cath's ability is she can communicate with cats and even dogs. Using her specific abilities, she helps solve murders in the city of Wonder Falls. This book deals with monsters and reanimating the dead.

This box set of the Wonder Cats Mysteries contains books 1-3 of paranormal cozy mysteries. The first book is A HISS-TORY OF MAGIC which introduces the town of Wonder Falls, Ontario and the Greenstone family of witches. The world being is well-done as we are introduced to the town and the characters. I like the first person point-of-view. The mystery kept me enthralled trying to figure it out. I liked Cath, Bea, and Astrid. I also liked the cats Treacle, Marshmallow, and Peanut Butter and how they work together with each other and their humans. I want to know what happens with Cath, Min, and Blake. Next up is PAWSITIVELY DEAD. Someone is raising the dead and not doing a very good job of it. Cath, Bea, and Astrid have to figure out how it is being done as well as who is behind it. Bea's marriage is also on the rocks as Jake found out Bea's secret in the first book A HISS-TORY OF MAGIC. I loved the build-up of suspense in this book. I was on the edge of my seat as I followed the trail of magic and how characters linked into it. The mystery was good. My instinct is telling me that Blake is onto Cath but I cannot be sure if he remembers incidents from the first book or if he is himself linked into the magic. I'll have to keep reading to find out. Last in this boxed set is CAT-ASTROPHIC SPELLS where Cath cannot talk to cats because something evil is blocking their communication. A man who does not know he is a medium lets Astrid know when the murders are happening. The dark has come to Wonder Falls and it is up to Cath and her family to bring the light back. I enjoyed these three books. I am looking forward to more of the series.
