Title: It Takes Two Box Set Series: The Matchmaker Series Author: Ellie Danes Designation:

Completed Series, Book One thru Six, Standalone, Happy For Now Reading Platform: Kindle

Unlimited My Rating: FIVE SEXY STARS***** The Matchmaker Series was my very first experience with Ellie Danes but once I began reading, I was not only impressed, I was completely hooked! By the end of the first chapter, I was more than a little intrigued by the storyline and characters of It Takes Two. I initially read and reviewed this series under the Kindle Unlimited program when it was originally offered as installments of an ongoing serial and looked forward to each release. Actually, that's an understatement. I could hardly wait for Danes to release each book. In fact, I enjoyed this series so much that I asked if I could be member of her street team. Apparently, this was the first release of her career but I immediately recognized her talent and was eager to jump on the band wagon. Fortunately, you can now read all six books of the series in one convenient bundle. So, that being said, I would very much like to share my original review. The story is exciting, intriguing, imaginative, well crafted, romantic, sensual and arousing. There were a few editing errors but over all the story is well written and the dialogue is well executed and flows beautifully. The characters are captivating, engaging and sexy as sin. Danes skillfully combines these elements to craft an enthralling and intoxicating read. Harper is a 24 year old grad student barely making ends meet on her salary from her part time job at the bar. She has always been able to match up everyone but herself. She's just unlucky in love. Hopefully, this latest breakup fiasco with Jake will teach her a lesson.
