YOU HAVE 10 SECONDS TO MAKE A DECISION: Let A Kidnapper Take Your Child, Or Watch Your Son Die. Choose!

Sadie O'Connell is a bestselling author and a proud mother. But her life is about to spiral out of control. After her six-year-old son Sam is kidnapped by a serial abductor, she nearly goes insane. But it isn't just the fear and grief that is ripping her apart. It's the guilt. Sadie is the only person who knows what the kidnapper looks like. And she can't tell a soul. For if she does, her son will be sent back to her in a little bloody pieces.

When Sadie's unfaithful husband stumbles across her drawing of the kidnapper, he sets into play a series of horrific events that sends her hurtling over the edge. Sadie's descent into alcoholism leads to strange apparitions and a face-to-face encounter with the monster who abducted her son--a man known only as...The Fog.

CHILDREN OF THE FOG has a unique tie-in to Tardif's newest thriller, SUBMERGED.

Editorial Reviews: "A chilling and tense journey into every parent's deepest fear." — Scott Nicholson, The Red Church "A nightmarish thriller with a ghostly twist, CHILDREN OF THE FOG will keep you awake...and turning pages!" — Amanda Stevens, author of The Restorer "Reminiscent of The Lovely Bones, Cheryl Kaye Tardif weaves a tale of terror that will have you rushing to check on your children as they sleep. With exquisite prose, Children of the Fog captures you the moment you begin and doesn't let go until the very end." — bestselling author Danielle Q. Lee, author of Inhuman "Ripe with engaging twists and turns reminiscent of the work of James Patterson, Tardif once again tugs at the most inflexible of heartstrings | Children of the Fog possesses you from the touching beginning through to the riveting climax." — Kelly Komm, author of Sacrifice, an award-winning fantasy

Customer Reviews

I wanted to like this book. Really I did. Admittedly, I'm not a reader of the suspense genre except for this particular book. Having said that, I found the story itself to be ridiculous. Even the "twists" were predictable from the moment they were set up. (spoiler alert) Sadie goes driving off into the wilderness and a mysterious car tries to run her off the road? Then the same mysterious (and creepy!) guy, who coincidentally lives across the river from the cabin she's renting, keeps giving her dirty looks? Really? Could he be any other than THE FOG? Sure, Sadie didn't put it together til way later, but as a reader, I found myself rolling my eyes and just waiting for the dots to connect themselves. This is just one example of many I could give. (Want another one? Okay. There turns out to be an undercover cop investigating her husband. AND her husband is having an affair with a coworker. Does it really take anybody more than 4 milliseconds to figure out the cop and the "coworker" are the same person?) Also, the writing. Oh my word. I don't think this is giving much away, because it happens in the first few chapters, but when Sadie buys Sam a bike for his upcoming birthday, the author actually uses the line, "Little did she know, he would never see it." Little did she know? Are you allowed to use that phrase in your writing when you're older than 12? I'll admit that the story was fast moving, so the writing got more bearable over time because I was reading it more for the story than the actual writing, if that makes sense.
